

24th Annual Children's Exhibition

FEBRUARY, SPECIFIC DATES TO BE ANNOUNCED

Guidelines for Exhibition: Grades 1-8

What kinds of work will be accepted?

Original student work in any media, labeled on front of work with appropriate information- name, grade, teacher, school, telephone number of school (labels provided for you to copy and attach to front of work). Works without labels will not be accepted. In addition, please fill out an inventory sheet listing the name and grade of each student whose work is to be included in the show. Please include this inventory sheet when dropping off works. All possible precautions will be taken by Hera to ensure the safety of artwork, but artwork is not insured.

How many pieces are accepted for the exhibition?

No more than ten entries from each school.

Can students submit work independently of their school?

Yes. Limited to one entry per student.

Are there other ways of getting involved?

Volunteers are always welcome as well as any monetary donations. People interested in helping out with the show behind the scenes can contact Hera Gallery at 401.789.1488.

When / Where do we submit the work?

Saturday, January 21st, 2012, from 10am to 2pm, at Hera Gallery, 327 Main Street, Wakefield, RI, 02879. The gallery is located behind Phil's Restaurant.

Directions from Providence: Take 95 South to Route 4 to Route 1. Take exit for Wakefield. Continue through 4 traffic lights. Look for Hera on right just after Phil's Restaurant.
From Westerly and points South: Take Route to 1st Wakefield exit (1A). Stay on Main Street and look for Hera on the left just before Phil's.
