

Hera Gallery
call for entries
30 Days + 24 Hours
An All Rhode Island Comic Book Exhibition, Challenge, and Marketplace
JULY 19TH – AUGUST 30TH

Hera Gallery is pleased to announce a call for entries for the upcoming exhibition, 30 Days + 24 Hours. This show will feature Rhode Island based artists working in the styles based or originating in the comic book format. Size, content, and materials are subject to the artists' interests; however, the work must evolve in a visually segmented manner.

The show will focus on three specific methods of making. The first will be a 30 Day Comic Book Challenge. This challenge will give makers the 30 days prior to the show to complete a finished comic book or graphic novel. All works will be displayed and available to the public to view. The second aspect will be a 24 Hour Challenge. This challenge will occur during the opening weekend of the exhibition. Hera will remain open for a 24 hour period of time, during which, artists are invited to participate by completing a comic solely during that 24 hours! There will be models, music, reading, food, and festivities provided during this time to stimulate the senses. Lastly, Hera Gallery will be displaying story boards, large format drawings, small format works, etc. This will include any work made outside of the 30 Day + 24 Hour. Of course, we would also like to provide an opportunity for participants to sell their work. Hera Gallery will provide sales space for books, prints, etc.
